

Dr. Wossenu Abteu is a professional civil engineer and water resources engineer certified by the American Academy of Water Resources Engineers. He worked with the South Florida Water Management District for close to 30 years before retiring as a principal engineer. Currently, he is a consultant in water resources and environment area. His experience includes work in hydrology, water management, environmental restoration, reservoir sizing and operation, the Nile River basin, and the GERD. He has published a book on GERD and other books on the Nile basin, evapotranspiration, extreme hydrology, and landscape dynamics. He has also published his works in many journal papers, book chapters, conference proceedings, and reports on diverse subjects.

*Wossenu Abteu, Ph.D., P.E., D.WRE
Principal Civil Engineer
Water and Environment Consulting LLC
<https://waterandenvironmental.com/>*