

ÁGATHA LOPES TOMMASI OLIVEIRA

Miss Agatha Tommasi currently works as Programme Officer in Brazil Regions4 and in the Rio de Janeiro State Government as Special Assistant to the Executive Board of the Sustainable Development Authority. She is also a consultant for the Casa das Águas Scientific Curatorship. Miss. Tommasi is also a Volunteer at the UNESCO Chair for Ocean Sustainability and she is contributing to the Oceans20, the G20 Engagement Group for Oceans. She was an Invited Expert as representative of the Latin American and Caribbean region to develop the IHP-IX: Strategic Plan of the Intergovernmental Hydrological Programme: Science for Water Security in the World in a Changing Environment, ninth phase 2022-2029 From 2015 to 2018 she was the Latin American and Caribbean representative of the World Youth Parliament for Water (WYPW) and she was the Co-founder of the Latin American and Caribbean Parliament of Youth for Water and the National Youth Parliament for Water - Brazil. During this time she was a member of the Coordination of the Capacity Building theme at the 2018 World Water Forum, Co-organizer of the Youth Forum that took place at the 2018 World Forum. Miss Tommasi. has a BSc in Environmental Engineering and a MSc. Metrology - Quality, Innovation and Sustainability from the Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro. Miss Tommasi is publishing a children's book called "O Menino Gotinha" (Water Boy) which aims to be Water Education tool.